

Jason Roycht
Vice President, North America Regional Business Leader
Commercial Vehicle and Off-Road
Robert Bosch LLC

Jason Roycht was named vice president and regional business leader of the Commercial Vehicle and Off-Road division of Robert Bosch LLC in July 2016. In this role, Roycht works with Bosch's business units and sales organizations to guide the company's growth strategy in North America, with a focus on cross-divisional opportunities and new technology.

Since joining Bosch in 1996, Roycht has held a series of sales, project management and engineering positions in the U.S. and in Germany. His most recent position with the company was vice president of sales for the Gasoline Systems division.

Roycht currently serves on the board of the Heavy Duty Manufacturers Association's Off-Highway Business Forum.

Roycht earned his bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering from Kettering University in Flint, Michigan.
